Letter from CIMIC GROUP

Dear Devine Shareholder

Off Market Takeover Bid for Devine by CRI

I am pleased to provide you with this conditional¹ Offer by CRI, a wholly owned subsidiary of CIMIC, to acquire all of Your Devine Shares for $0.24 cash per Devine Share. This Offer Price represents:

- a 100.0% premium to the Last Close Price, being the price of Devine Shares on the ASX at the close of trading on Monday, 24 May 2021, the Trading Day prior to the Announcement Date, of $0.120 per Devine Share;
- a 87.7% premium to the Devine one month volume weighted average price (VWAP) as at the Trading Day prior to Announcement Date, of $0.128 per Devine Share;
- a 84.0% premium to the Devine three month VWAP as at the Trading Day prior to Announcement Date, of $0.130 per Devine Share;
- a 103.3% premium to the Devine twelve month VWAP as at the Trading Day prior to Announcement Date, of $0.118 per Devine Share; and
- a 86.1% premium to the Devine twenty-four month VWAP as at the Trading Day prior to Announcement Date, of $0.129 per Devine Share.

In addition to the premium, the Offer enables you to achieve liquidity for all of your shareholding in Devine in an orderly manner and without the need to pay brokerage fees. The Offer is open for acceptance until 7.00pm (AEST) on [•] 2021, unless extended or withdrawn in accordance with the Corporations Act. To accept the Offer, please follow the instructions set out in Section 1.2 and on the enclosed Acceptance Form. Given CRI already owns 59.11% of the Devine Shares on issue, there is unlikely to be an alternative proposal for Devine.

The Directors of CRI and CIMIC believe this Offer is compelling for Devine Shareholders, having regard to the cash value being offered compared to the alternative of continuing to own shares in Devine.

If you require additional assistance, please contact the CIMIC Offer Information Line on 1300 560 339 (for calls made within Australia) or +612 8011 0354 (for calls made from outside Australia) from Monday to Friday between 9:00am and 5:00pm (AEST). Alternatively, contact the chat line by scanning the QR code on the cover of the Bidder's Statement or at <http://chat4.shareholdersfirst.com.au/>.

Yours sincerely

Juan Santamaria

Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

¹ The Offer is subject to a "minimum acceptance condition". Refer to Section 9.9 for further detail.

Summary of the Offer

This summary provides an overview of the Offer and is qualified by the detailed information contained in this Bidder's Statement. You should read this Bidder's Statement in full before deciding whether or not to accept the Offer.

The Bidder CRI is a wholly owned subsidiary of CIMIC. CIMIC Group is an engineering-led construction, mining, services and public private partnerships company working across the lifecycle of assets, infrastructure and resources projects. CIMIC Group comprises construction businesses CPB Contractors, Leighton Asia and Broad, mining and mineral processing companies Thiess (joint control) and Sedgman, services specialists UGL and Ventia (47% investment) and our public private partnerships arm Pacific Partnerships – all supported by an in-house engineering consultancy, EIC Activities. CIMIC is listed on ASX with a market capitalisation of approximately $6.6 billion as at the close of trading on the last Trading Day prior to the Announcement Date.

Through CRI and CGI2, CIMIC is Devine's major shareholder, currently owning 59.11% of all Devine Shares.

Section 2 of this Bidder's Statement contains further information on CRI and CIMIC.

Offer The Offer consideration is $0.24 cash for every Devine Share acquired by CRI pursuant to the Offer. CRI is offering to acquire all of Your Devine Shares by way of an off-market takeover bid under Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act.

The Offer relates to all Devine Shares on issue on the Register Date together with those which are issued prior to the close of the Offer Period.

Conditions to Offer The Offer is subject to a "minimum acceptance" condition.

Section 9.9 of this Bidder's Statement contains further information on this condition.

Offer Period The Offer closes at 7.00pm (AEST) on [*] 2021, unless it is extended or withdrawn by CRI in accordance with the Corporations Act.

How to Accept and Payment Date To accept the Offer follow the instructions set out in Section 1.2 and on the Acceptance Form. Your acceptance must be received before the Offer Period ends.

If you accept the Offer and the Offer becomes unconditional, CRI will pay you the consideration under the Offer by the earlier of:

- (a) 7 business days after the later of (i) receipt of your valid acceptance or (ii) the date on which the Offer becomes unconditional; and
- (b) 7 business days after the end of the Offer Period.

Broker Fees If Your Devine Shares are registered in an Issuer Sponsored Holding in your name and you deliver them directly to CRI, you will not incur any brokerage fees or be obliged to pay stamp duty in connection with your acceptance of the Offer.

If Your Devine Shares are registered in a CHESS Holding, or if you are a beneficial owner whose Devine Shares are registered in the name of a broker, bank, custodian, or other nominee, you will not be obliged to pay stamp duty by accepting the Offer, but you should ask your Controlling Participant (usually your broker) or that nominee whether it will charge any transactional fees or service charges in connection with acceptance of the Offer

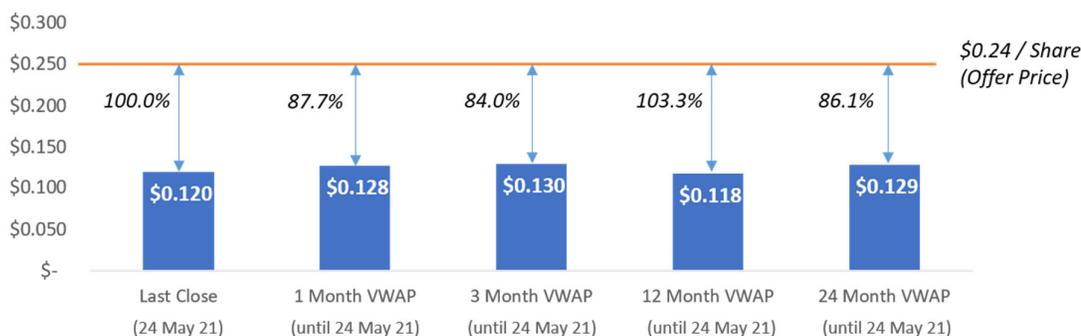

Why you should accept CRI's Offer

1. You will receive an attractive cash price for Your Devine Shares

The Offer Price of $0.24 cash per Devine Share, which will be paid if the Offer becomes unconditional, represents an attractive premium to historical trading prices as highlighted below. The Offer Price represents:

- a 100.0% premium to the Last Close Price, being the price of Devine Shares on the ASX at the close of trading on Monday, 24 May 2021, the Trading Day prior to the Announcement Date, of $0.120 per Devine Share;
- a 87.7% premium to the Devine one month volume weighted average price (VWAP) as at the Trading Day prior to Announcement Date, of $0.128 per Devine Share;
- a 84.0% premium to the Devine three month VWAP as at the Trading Day prior to Announcement Date, of $0.130 per Devine Share;
- a 103.3% premium to the Devine twelve month VWAP as at the Trading Day prior to Announcement Date, of $0.118 per Devine Share; and
- a 86.1% premium to the Devine twenty-four month VWAP as at the Trading Day prior to Announcement Date, of $0.129 per Devine Share.

2. Cash certainty

CRI is offering to acquire all of Your Devine Shares for $0.24 cash per Devine Share.

The Offer is subject to the "minimum acceptance" Offer Condition.

This gives Devine Shareholders certainty about the value of consideration being offered. This may be particularly attractive for Devine Shareholders given the risk involved with Devine's business and the risks associated with owning shares in a listed company.

3. Potential reduction in liquidity and delisting from ASX

CRI currently owns 59.11% of the Devine Shares on issue. Should CRI be successful in increasing its ownership stake, this may lead to reduced liquidity or potentially CRI seeking to procure the removal of Devine from the official list of the ASX, which may make it difficult for you to sell Your Devine Shares outside the Offer at current price levels. The Offer enables all Devine Shareholders to exit their shareholding in an orderly manner at the Offer Price.

4. Share price may fall if Devine Shareholders do not accept

The closing Devine Share price on ASX on Monday, 24 May 2021, being the last Trading Day prior to the Announcement Date, was $0.120. Given CRI already owns 59.11% of the Devine Shares on issue, there is unlikely to be an alternative proposal for Devine.

The Devine Share price may trade at levels below the Offer Price once the Offer has lapsed (although this is difficult to predict with any degree of certainty) given Devine Shareholders are being offered a premium for their Devine Shares under the Offer.

Further, as detailed in Section 2.5, as majority shareholder, CIMIC (via CRI) has historically provided operational support to Devine and extended benefits arising from CIMIC Group's size and position, including guaranteeing Devine's primary $55 million funding facility and providing insurance coverage for the majority of Devine's operational activities, at no cost to Devine. In addition, it has provided administrative operational support and worked with Devine from time to time through joint venture entities.

If following the close of the Offer CRI has not acquired enough Devine Shares to proceed to compulsory acquisition of the remaining Devine Shares it does not own, CIMIC Group and CRI currently intend to review and assess the support provided to Devine by CIMIC Group, including the future provision of the operational support and debt finance arrangements described in Sections 2.5(b) and 2.5(c).

5. No brokerage charges in accepting CRI's Offer

If Your Devine Shares are registered in an Issuer Sponsored Holding in your name and you deliver them directly to CRI, you will not incur any brokerage fees or be obliged to pay stamp duty in connection with your acceptance of the Offer.

If Your Devine Shares are registered in a CHES Holding, or if you are a beneficial owner whose Devine Shares are registered in the name of a broker, bank, custodian, or other nominee, you will not be obliged to pay stamp duty by accepting the Offer, but you should ask your Controlling Participant (usually your broker) or that nominee whether it will charge any transactional fees or service charges in connection with acceptance of the Offer.

Neither CRI nor the Registry will be responsible should your Controlling Participant not acknowledge and confirm your acceptance before the end of the Offer Period, after which time your submission will be deemed invalid.

Following a compulsory acquisition of the remaining Devine Shares, CRI intends to seek to procure the removal of Devine from the official list of ASX.

(iii) Employees

CRI considers Devine's employees to be an integral part of Devine's operations. CRI currently intends to retain the services of Devine's current employees in the ordinary course. In cases where particular roles may no longer be required, CRI will attempt to identify opportunities for alternative employment within CIMIC Group.

(iv) Business and assets

Following the Offer Period, CRI currently intends to conduct a strategic review of Devine to drive operational efficiencies and improvements to project delivery and identify ways which both CIMIC Group and Devine can benefit from their complementary skills and capabilities.

The outcome of this strategic review may result in changes to the structure of Devine, including changes to the way its businesses are managed.

While CRI does not have any predetermined intentions in relation to the outcomes of the strategic review, CRI considers that there may be opportunities for CIMIC Group and Devine to drive further operational efficiencies and improvements.

(b) Intentions upon acquiring less than 90% of Devine Shares

CRI reserves the right to waive the "minimum acceptance" Offer Condition and proceed with the Offer. If, following the close of the Offer, Devine is still a controlled entity, but not a wholly owned subsidiary of CRI, CRI's current intentions are set out in this Section 4.2(b).

(i) ASX Listing

If there is a limited number or spread of Devine Shareholders remaining at the end of the Offer Period, CRI may seek to procure the removal of Devine from the official list of the ASX.

ASX guidance indicates that it would likely approve an application for Devine to be removed from the official list of the ASX without any need for shareholder approval if the following conditions are satisfied:

- at the end of the Offer Period, CRI owns or controls at least 75% of Devine Shares and the Offer Period has remained open for at least two weeks after Devine attained ownership or control of at least 75% of the Devine Shares; and
- fewer than 150 Devine Shareholders (other than CRI and CGI2) have holdings with a value of at least $500.

(ii) Directors

CRI's current intention is to maintain the existing directors of Devine unless CRI ceases to be an ASX listed company, in which case CRI will review the number and composition of the Devine Board.

(iii) Business and assets

CRI intends to reassess its position with respect to Devine in light of the outcome of the Offer and CRI's position at that time, which may include seeking the implementation of certain of its intentions outlined in Section 4.2(a)(iv) of this Bidder's Statement. Additionally, CIMIC and CRI currently intend to review and assess the support provided to Devine by CIMIC Group, including the future provision of the operational support and debt finance arrangements described in Section 2.5(b) and 2.5(c) above.

(iv) Employees

CRI intends to implement its intentions in relation to employees as set out in Section 4.2(a)(iii) to the fullest extent possible.

(c) Limitations in giving effect to intentions

The extent to which CRI will be able to implement its intentions in relation to Devine will be subject to:

- the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules, in particular in relation to related party transactions and conflicts of interests; and
- the legal obligations of the directors of Devine to act for proper purposes and in the best interests of Devine Shareholders as a whole.

5. INFORMATION ON DEVINE SECURITIES

5.3 Consideration provided for Devine securities during previous four months

CRI and its Associates have not acquired any Devine Shares during the period of four months ending on the day immediately before the date of the Offer.

CRI and its Associates have not disposed of any Devine Shares during the period of four months ending on the day immediately before the date of the Offer.

5.4 Inducing benefits given during previous four months

Neither CRI nor any of its Associates has, during the period of four months ending on the day immediately before the date of the Offer, given, offered or agreed to give, a benefit to another person where the benefit was likely to induce the other person, or an Associate, to:

- (a) accept the Offer; or
- (b) dispose of Devine Shares, which benefit was not offered to all Devine Shareholders under the Offer.

6. FUNDING

6.1 Maximum Cash Consideration

The maximum cash amount which may be required by CRI to settle acceptances under the Offer is $15.6 million (Maximum Cash Consideration).

The Maximum Cash Consideration is calculated on the basis of acceptances in respect of 64,900,378 Devine Shares, that is all Devine Shares not owned by CRI.

6.2 CRI's internal funding arrangements

CIMIC has committed to provide (or procure that one of its subsidiaries provides) CRI with all amounts CRI requires to pay the Maximum Cash Consideration, as well as any associated transaction costs incurred by CRI in connection with the Offer. This on-demand commitment will remain in place so long as CRI has an outstanding obligation to make payments under the Offer and will not be subject to any conditions precedent.

6.3 CIMIC's funding arrangements

The funds required to be provided by CIMIC to CRI to enable CRI to pay the Maximum Cash Consideration and any associated transaction costs will be obtained from CIMIC's existing funds at call (cash and cash equivalents).

In aggregate, CIMIC's funds available materially exceeds the Maximum Cash Consideration and all associated transaction costs.

6.4 Payment of cash consideration

Having regard to the matters set out above, CRI is of the opinion that it has a reasonable basis for forming, and it holds the view, that it will be able to pay the Maximum Cash Consideration required for the acquisition of Devine Shares pursuant to the Offer.

The Offer is not subject to any financing conditions.

7. TAXATION IMPLICATIONS

7.1 Introduction

The following is a general description of the Australian income tax, GST and stamp duty consequences for Devine Shareholders of disposing of Devine Shares in return for cash under the Offer.

This summary only applies to Devine Shareholders who hold their Devine Shares on capital account for Australian income tax purposes. In particular, it does not apply to Devine Shareholders who buy and sell shares in the ordinary course of business or who otherwise hold their Devine Shares on revenue account or as trading stock for Australian tax purposes.

In addition, this summary does not apply to:

- (a) Devine Shareholders who acquired their Devine Shares under an employee share or option scheme;
- (b) Devine Shareholders who are subject to special taxation rules (for example, insurance companies and tax exempt organisations);
- (c) Devine Shareholders whose Devine Shares are subject to the "taxation of financial arrangements" rules in Division 230 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997; and
- (d) non-Australian resident Devine Shareholders who have held their Devine Shares at any time in carrying on a business at or through a permanent establishment in Australia.

This summary also does not address Devine Shareholders that are partnerships, persons that are partners of such partnerships or persons that are beneficiaries of a trust that is a Devine Shareholder. If a partnership or a trust is a Devine Shareholder, the partners of such partnership or the beneficiaries of such trust should consult their own tax advisers with respect to the Australian taxation consequences to them of the partnership or the trust (as applicable) accepting the Offer.

The information in this description is based upon Australian taxation law and practice in effect at the date of this Bidder's Statement. It is not intended to be an authoritative or comprehensive analysis of the taxation laws of Australia. The summary does not consider any specific facts or circumstances that may apply to particular Devine Shareholders.

You are advised to seek independent professional advice regarding the Australian tax consequences of disposing of Your Devine Shares according to your particular circumstances.

7.2 Devine Shareholders who are Australian residents for tax purposes

(a) CGT consequences of accepting the Offer or compulsory acquisition

This Section applies to Devine Shareholders who are residents of Australia for Australian income tax purposes and hold their Devine Shares on capital account.

If you are an Australian resident for Australian income tax purposes, the disposal of Your Devine Shares pursuant to the Offer will constitute a CGT event.

The time of the CGT event is when you dispose of Your Devine Shares for CGT purposes. If you accept the Offer, you should be taken to have disposed of Your Devine Shares for CGT purposes when the contract to sell Your Devine Shares comes into existence by accepting the Offer to dispose of Your Devine Shares in accordance with Section 9.7. However, if you do not ultimately dispose of Your Devine Shares

(e.g. if the Offer Condition is not fulfilled) then no CGT event should happen to Your Devine Shares.

If CRI becomes entitled to compulsorily acquire any outstanding Devine Shares under the Corporations Act (see Section 4.2(a)(i) above) and Your Devine Shares are compulsorily acquired, you will be taken to have disposed of Your Devine Shares for CGT purposes on the date you cease to be the owner.

The disposal of Your Devine Shares will give rise to a capital gain or loss equal to the difference between:

- (i) the capital proceeds received for the disposal of Your Devine Shares (i.e. the cash received under the Offer); and
- (ii) the cost base (or, in the case of a capital loss, reduced cost base) of Your Devine Shares (which would generally include the amount paid to acquire the Devine Shares plus any non-deductible incidental costs of acquisition, e.g. brokerage fees and stamp duty).

Each Devine Share constitutes a separate asset for CGT purposes. You will need to separately consider the consequences of the disposal of Your Devine Shares which were acquired in different parcels at different times.

Your net capital gain for the income year is included in your assessable income for the income year. Broadly, your net capital gain for an income year is the total of all of the capital gains made during the income year less capital losses made in the income year and available net capital losses made in previous income years. That amount may be reduced further by other concessions, particularly under the discount capital gains tax rules discussed below.

If you make a capital loss from the disposal of Your Devine Shares, the capital loss may be used to offset capital gains made in the same or subsequent years of income (subject to satisfying any applicable carry forward loss conditions) but cannot be offset against ordinary income, nor carried back to offset net capital gains arising in earlier income years.

(b) Pre-CGT shares

If Your Devine Shares were acquired, or are taken to have been acquired, before 20 September 1985 for CGT purposes and are not taken to have been acquired on or after that date for CGT purposes, there should be no CGT implications arising on disposal of Your Devine Shares.

(c) Indexation for pre-21 September 1999 shares

If Your Devine Shares that you dispose of were acquired at or before 11.45 am (ACT time) on 21 September 1999, for the purpose of calculating a capital gain (but not a capital loss), you may choose that the cost base of those shares be indexed for inflation to 30 September 1999 (which would only be of any practical effect if the shares were acquired prior to 1 July 1999). If you choose indexation to apply, the discount capital gains tax provisions discussed below will not apply.

If you choose the indexation option, capital losses are applied after calculating the capital gain using the indexed cost base.

The choice to apply indexation rather than the discount capital gain provisions must be made by you on or before the day you lodge your income tax return for the income year in which the disposal occurs. The manner in which you complete your income tax return is generally sufficient evidence of your making of a choice.

If you do not choose to apply indexation, the discount capital gain provisions may apply, provided you have held Your Devine Shares for at least 12 months (as discussed further below).

(d) Discount capital gains

If you are an individual, or you hold Your Devine Shares as trustee of a trust or a complying superannuation fund, and have held Your Devine Shares for at least 12 months before disposal (and have not chosen for indexation to apply, should the choice be available), the discount capital gain provisions should apply as follows:

- (i) If you are an individual, one half of the capital gain (without any allowance for indexation in the cost base of the shares), after offsetting any applicable capital losses, will be included in your assessable income.
- (ii) If you are acting as a trustee of a trust (but not a superannuation fund), one half of the capital gain (without any allowance for indexation in the cost base of the shares), after offsetting any applicable capital losses, will be included in the "net income" of the trust. The discount capital gains provisions may also apply to capital gains to which beneficiaries in the trust (other than beneficiaries that are companies) are entitled. The CGT provisions applying to trustees and beneficiaries of trusts are complex and you should seek advice from your professional tax adviser in this regard.
- (iii) If you are a complying superannuation fund, two-thirds of the capital gain (without any allowance for indexation in the cost base of the shares) after offsetting applicable capital losses will be included in the fund's assessable income.

The discount capital gain provisions do not apply to companies.

Where the discount capital gain provisions apply, any available capital loss will be applied to reduce the nominal capital gain before discounting the resulting net amount by either one half or one third (as applicable) to calculate the net capital gain that is included in assessable income.

7.3 Devine Shareholders who are not Australian residents for tax purposes

This Section applies to Devine Shareholders that are not Australian residents for tax purposes and hold their Devine Shares on capital account. It does not apply to Devine Shareholders who have held their Devine Shares at any time in carrying on a business at or through a permanent establishment in Australia.

If you are not a resident of Australia for Australian income tax purposes, you will generally not be subject to CGT on the disposal of Your Devine Shares unless Your Devine Shares are an "indirect Australian real property interest" at the time you dispose of Your Devine Shares for CGT purposes.

Broadly, Your Devine Shares should not be an indirect Australian real property interest as at that time unless the following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) you and your associates (as defined for tax purposes) together have held at least 10% or more (by value) of the issued shares in Devine at the time that you dispose of Your Devine Shares for CGT purposes or for at least 12 months during the 24 months before you disposed of Your Devine Shares for CGT purposes; and
- (b) the aggregate market value of Devine's assets which are taxable Australian property (being direct and indirect interests in real property, including leases of land, situated in Australia and mining, quarrying or prospecting rights in respect of materials situated in Australia) exceeds the aggregate market value of Devine's assets which are not taxable Australian property.

If you are a non-resident of Australia for tax purposes and hold, or have held (either alone or together with associates) 10% or more of the total number of Devine Shares on issue, you should seek professional advice with respect to the CGT consequences of disposing of Your Devine Shares.

7.4 CGT Non-resident withholding tax

The CGT non-resident withholding tax regime (CGT NRWT) applies to off-market transactions entered into on or after 1 July 2016. Under this regime buyers of securities in certain companies and trusts from foreign residents who are subject to CGT are generally required to pay 12.5% of the purchase price to the ATO as a pre-payment of the Seller's tax liability.

Where the provisions are enlivened a selling shareholder can apply to the ATO in advance to have the rate of withholding varied down (including down to zero).

The amount of CGT NRWT is required to be paid by the buyer to the ATO on or before completion of the transaction. The seller gets a credit against its Australian tax for the amount paid by the buyer to the ATO.

Where CRI considers that the provisions may be enlivened in respect of you, it will use reasonable endeavours to contact you so that you have the opportunity to provide a notice to CRI that:

- (a) you are a resident of Australia; or
- (b) Your Devine Shares are not Taxable Australian Property.

If you do not provide such declaration or CRI knows it to be false it will withhold 12.5% of the consideration offered by it and remit that to the ATO.

7.5 GST

The disposal of Your Devine Shares in return for cash under the Offer will not attract GST. To the extent that you incur GST on acquisitions which you make in connection with the Offer (such as adviser fees), you may not be entitled to an input tax credit or only be entitled to a reduced input tax credit for that GST, depending on your particular circumstances.

7.6 Stamp duty

You will not be liable for any stamp duty on the disposal of Your Devine Shares in return for cash under the Offer. Any stamp duty payable on the disposal of Devine Shares pursuant to the Offer will be paid by CRI.

8. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

8.1 Offer condition

The condition of the Offer is set out in Section 9.9 of this Bidder's Statement.

8.2 ASIC modifications

ASIC has published various "Class Order" instruments providing for modifications and exemptions that generally apply to all persons including CRI, in relation to the operation of Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act.

Amongst others, CRI has relied on the modification to Section 636(3) of the Corporations Act set out in paragraph 5(d) of ASIC Class Order 13/521 "Takeover Bids" to include references to certain statements which are made or based on statements made in documents lodged with ASIC or ASX. Pursuant to Class Order 13/521, the consent of the relevant person is not required for the inclusion of such statements in this Bidder's Statement. As required by Class Order 13/521, CRI will make available a copy of these documents (or of relevant extracts from these documents), free of charge, to you and other Devine Shareholders who request it during the Offer Period. To obtain a copy of these documents (or the relevant extracts), you may telephone the CIMIC Offer Information Line on 1300 560 339 (for calls made within Australia) or +612 8011 0354 (for calls made from outside Australia) from Monday to Friday between 9.00am and 5.00pm (AEST).

CRI has also relied on the modification to Section 661A(2) of the Corporations Act set out in paragraph 4(a) of ASIC Class Order 13/522 to exclude the Devine Shares which CRI and its Associates have a Relevant Interest in as at the beginning of the Offer Period from the calculation of the 75% of the Devine Shares that CRI and its Associates must acquire under the Offer for compulsory acquisition under s661A to occur.

8.3 Persons to whom Offer is sent

For the purposes of Section 633(2) of the Corporations Act, the date for determining the persons to whom information is to be sent in items 6 and 12 of Section 633(1) of the Corporations Act is the Register Date (being 8.00am on 1 June 2021).

8.4 Regulatory and legal matters

(a) Foreign Investment Review Board approval

Foreign Investment Review Board (FIRB) approval was received by way of letter dated 10 December 2019, which stated that the Treasurer has no objection to the proposed acquisition of up to 100% of the share capital of Devine by CIMIC (or a wholly owned subsidiary of CIMIC). The FIRB approval was subsequently extended by 12 months to 9 December 2021 by way of letter dated 24 November 2020.

(b) Other regulatory approvals

The Offer is not conditional on any regulatory approvals being obtained.

8.5 No escalation agreements

Neither CRI nor any Associate of CRI has entered into any escalation agreement in respect of Devine Shares that is prohibited by Section 622 of the Corporations Act.

8.6 On market purchases

In accordance with ASIC Market Integrity Rule 5.13.1 and 5.14.1, CRI confirms that it has appointed Macquarie Securities (Australia) Limited to purchase Devine Shares on CRI's behalf, on market during the Offer Period for prices at or below $0.24 per Share.

8.7 Consents

This Bidder's Statement contains statements made by, or statements based on, statements made by CIMIC. CIMIC has given and has not, before lodgement of this Bidder's Statement with ASIC, withdrawn its consent to the inclusion of:

- (b) each statement it has made; and
- (c) each statement which is based on a statement it has made, in this Bidder's Statement in the form and context in which those statements appear and to the maximum extent permitted by law expressly disclaims and takes no responsibility for any part of this Bidder's Statement other than any statement which has been included in this Bidder's Statement with the consent of that party.

Each person who is named in this Bidder's Statement as acting in a professional capacity for CRI in relation to the Offer (including, without limitation, Macquarie Capital (Australia) Limited, Macquarie Securities (Australia) Limited, Herbert Smith Freehills and Computershare Investor Services Pty Limited):

- (a) does not make, or purport to make, any statement in this Bidder's Statement or any statement on which a statement in this Bidder's Statement is based, other than a statement included in this Bidder's Statement with the consent of that person; and
- (b) to the maximum extent permitted by law, expressly disclaims and takes no responsibility for any part of this Bidder's Statement, other than any statement which has been included in this Bidder's Statement with the consent of that party.

In addition, this Bidder's Statement includes statements which are made in, or based on statements made in, documents lodged with ASIC or the company announcement platform of ASX by Devine and others. Under the terms of ASIC Class Order 13/521, the parties making those statements are not required to, and have not consented to, the inclusion of those statements in this Bidder's Statement. This information may also be obtained from Devine's website at www.devinegroup.com.au.

8.8 Social security and superannuation implications of the Offer

Acceptance of the Offer may have implications under your superannuation arrangements or on your social security entitlements. If in any doubt, you should seek specialist advice.

8.9 No other material information

There is no other information that:

- is material to the making of the decision by a holder of Devine Shares whether or not to accept the Offer; and
- which is known to CRI,

other than:

- as set out or referred to elsewhere in this Bidder's Statement; or
- information which would be unreasonable to require CRI to disclose because the information has previously been disclosed to holders of Devine Shares.

- (d) To accept this Offer in respect of Devine Shares which, at the time of acceptance, are held by you in a CHESS Holding (in which case your Holder Identification Number will commence with "X"), you must comply with the ASX Settlement Operating Rules. To accept this Offer in accordance with the ASX Settlement Operating Rules, you may accept the Offer online at www.cimicoffer.com, by instructing your Controlling Participant or by using the CHESS Acceptance Form sent with this Bidder's Statement:

(i) Online Acceptance

(A) To accept the Offer online, you must:

- (aa) login to www.cimicoffer.com and follow the instructions. You will need your HIN and postcode or country of residence (if your Devine shareholding is registered outside of Australia) associated with Your Devine Shares to log in; and
- (bb) follow the instructions and select the "Accept" option, and submit your acceptance of the Offer. You will receive on-screen confirmation of submission of your acceptance of the Offer, and a further confirmation via email to the email address you provided after you logged in. This will authorise CRI and the Share Registry to request your Controlling Participant to initiate acceptance of the Offer on your behalf.

(B) Where Your Devine Shares are held in more than one name, a holder must have the authority of all other joint holders to act on their behalf to submit an online acceptance of the Offer in respect of the jointly held Devine Shares.

 - (D) If you are a CHESSE holder, CRI strongly recommends that you submit your online acceptance of the Offer by no later than 4.00 pm (AEST) on the last day of the Offer Period. This is because the Share Registry will need to confirm with your Controlling Participant any online submission of your acceptance of the Offer before it can be taken as validly submitted. There may not be sufficient time to do so for any online acceptance submitted by CHESSE holders after 4.00 pm (AEST) on the last day of the Offer Period. Your online acceptance is not a valid acceptance until your Controlling Participant confirms acceptance.
 - (E) Neither CRI nor the Registry will be responsible should your Controlling Participant not acknowledge and confirm your acceptance before the end of the Offer Period, after which time your submission will be deemed invalid.
- (ii) if you are the Controlling Participant, you must initiate acceptance of this Offer in accordance with Rule 14.14 of the ASX Settlement Operating Rules before the end of the Offer Period; or
 - (iii) if you are not the Controlling Participant, you may either:
 - (A) instruct your Controlling Participant, in accordance with the sponsorship agreement between you and the Controlling Participant, to initiate acceptance of this Offer in accordance with Rule 14.14 of ASX Settlement Operating Rules, such initiation to occur before the end of the Offer Period. If you choose to accept this Offer in this way, your Controlling Participant will be obliged by Rule 14.14.1 of ASX Settlement Operating Rules to initiate the acceptance within the following timeframes:
 - (aa) if you specify a time when, or by which, this Offer must be accepted, in accordance with those instructions; or
 - (bb) otherwise, by End of Day (as defined in the ASX Settlement Operating Rules) on the date that you instruct the Controlling Participant to accept this Offer or, if the Offer Period ends on the day you provide those instructions, before the end of the Offer Period; or
 - (B) otherwise, complete and sign the enclosed CHESSE Acceptance Form in accordance with the instructions on the CHESSE Acceptance Form and return it together with all other documents required by those instructions to one of the addresses specified in Section 9.4(c) above or by using the enclosed reply paid envelope (which is valid if sent from within Australia), and as such authorise CRI to instruct your Controlling Participant to initiate acceptance of this Offer on your behalf in accordance with Rule 14.14 of the ASX Settlement Operating Rules. For return of the CHESSE Acceptance Form to be an effective acceptance of the Offer under this Section 9.4(d)(iii)(B), it must be received by CRI in time for CRI to give instructions to your Controlling Participant, and your Controlling Participant to carry out those instructions, before the end of the Offer Period.

- (e) An acceptance of this Offer under Section 9.4(b) or 9.4(d)(iii)(B) shall not be complete until the Acceptance Form, completed and signed in accordance with the instructions on it and all other documents required by those instructions, have been received at the address set out in Section 9.4(c). 9.5 Online Acceptances

When using the online facility available at www.cimicoffer.com to accept the Offer:

- (a) for your acceptance to be valid you must ensure that your acceptance is submitted before the end of the Offer Period.
